Non-Classified

2022 Legislative Session

Information Center Staff

Legislative Services Office

Open for recruitment: November 2 – November 23, 2021

Non-Classified, temporary, seasonal position.

The Legislative Services Office is seeking to fill non-partisan, seasonal positions in the Legislative Information Center for the 2022 Legislative Session.

RESPONSIBILITIES: Information Specialist positions will work as a team to provide various support services to the Legislature that include: communicate general information to the public through phone calls, email and face-to-face interaction; receive and transmit messages for legislators through phone calls and email; sort, distribute and file bills; provide mail services, and other tasks as needed. Work schedules can range between 20-40 hours per week.

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS: The Information Center is often the first point of contact between the public and the state legislature; because of this, a professional demeanor and strong communication skills are required, as well as, the ability to act in a completely non-partisan manner.

- A strong background in customer service.
- Proficiency with multi-line phone systems, computers, Microsoft Outlook and Word.
- Experience working in a team environment.
- Ability to take notes and type data in a fast-paced environment.
